Notes for Lloyd Roy Albert Morley:

Source: Dolph Morley, personal interview

Lloyd never married. He spent some time in the Oregon State Hospital (at that time known as the Insane Asylum). At times his behavior was bizarre (i.e. going into Salem and giving away the family automobile to a complete stranger). He may have had a Bipolar illness (manic-depressive), a chemical imbalance in the brain which can now be treated with medication. He had a twin brother who died at birth.

Notes for John Harvey Patten:

Source: email from Jeff Patten 30 June 2002

"According to the obituary of his brother Judson A. Patten in 1925, John and another brother, Levi, owned and operated the Harrow grist mill for a time in Essex County. According to the 1871 Ontario census for Oxford County in Blenheim Township, John lived under his father's roof and worked as a labourer and according to the 1881 Ontario census for Oxford County in Blenheim Township, John had a wife and three children and was listed again as a labourer under his own census heading. His brother Levi and family went West in 1883 and at one point or another his brother Judson became a painter and decorator. Judson was also listed in the Ontario census in Oxford County in Blenheim Township in 1881. Between 1871 and 1881 was very busy for the brothers, moving to Essex, starting a mill, then getting rid of it and moving back to Oxford. Levi does NOT show up in the 1871 or 1881 Oxford census. I wonder if the mill failed under their ownership or if they started it, sold it for a profit and then went on to their own separate endeavors? Judson of course went back to Essex to become a successful businessman and politician."

"According to the Historical Atlas for Oxford County, Blenheim Township, shows John Patton living on Lot 1 Concession 7, along with C., David, and Walter C. Patton."

"In September 1876, gold was discovered at Forty-nine Creek, nine miles west of Nelson, resulting in a minor rush of prospectors from the United States to the site of the find. In the years 1876 to 1869, miners wages were $4 to $5 a day. Gold dust was worth $18 an ounce. Mining was carried on around Hall Creek, Forty-nine Creek and the Pend d'Oreille. In an item in the December 2nd, 1893, edition of the Nelson Miner, Richard Fry of Bonners Ferry, Idaho, stated that two men made $1900 each in two weeks.

After this mineral find was exploited, quiet again returned to the forested valleys and 15 years went by before another rush of people came to the area." <http://www.discovernelson.com/history/index.html>

DONATION LAND CLAIM INFORMATION

Settled land claim 16 November 1851, Title issued November 27, 1865

#754 T8S R1W #10, 11 641.35 acres.

This claim was northwest of the claim of William's father, Moses Morley. The claim of his brother, John, was between these two claims. William's claim was bordered on the north by what is now Waldo Hills Drive, on the west by the Cascade Highway. By 1878, the land had been divided and portions belonged to Josiah Morley, Marion Morley, and Elias Morley (William's three sons), B. Schrontx, and J. Neibert. George Given was the bordering neighbor on the north. He lived on the old R. McAlpine land claim. George's daughter, Eliza, married Josiah Morley.

Notes:

Oregon State Board of Health Certificate of Death #1283, Marion County, 1 April 1912. Signed by Dr. Kluns____, who had been treating her since 31 Dec 1911. She had suffered from chronic nephritis (kidney infection) for five years. Death was by cerebral hemorrhage. She was living in the Waldo Hills at the time of her death, and apparently died at home. W. S. Jack of Silverton was the undertaker and she was buried in Warren Cemetery (Mt. Hope) on 3 April 1912. She was 81 years, 6 months, and 30 days of age. Informant was G. E. Given of Silverton, Oregon, her son.

Dolph Morley remembers his grandmother Isabella Welch Given as being rather cantankerous. Once while angry she walked right off the porch, falling and breaking her hip.

Wade. Marion County Oregon Cemeteries: Lone Oak/Stayton

"Henry Carter was born in Dorking, England. He came to near Whiteaker, 7 miles northeast of Stayton, in 1871, moving from Austin, Mower County, Minnesota, where he had lived for fifteen years. Five children were born to him and Elizabeth, all surviving him." (This is in error, as not all his children were by Elizabeth). [Obit in Patton Scrapbook; also see Marion County Probate #1841].

Young. Descendants of Josiah Bull.

"Henry came to Canada in 1832, sailing from Liverpool. He travelled alone and never again heard from his family in England. After their marriage, Elizabeth and Henry went to live in Austin, Minnesota where the nearest supply center was St. Paul. In 1871 they had moved to a farm near Stayton, Marion County, Oregon... Henry and Ira went to Oregon, settling 16 miles east of Salem. Later they sent for Elizabeth and their three surviving sons, who came by railroad to Redding, CA where the railroad ended. From there they had to travel by stagecoach to Marion County... Henry hired Chinese, who lived in the barn, to help dig out oak grubs from the farm. The oaks had first been chopped off at the top of the ground. They split the fir trees into rails and fenced the land. Henry kept goats there to eat the shoots until the roots began to rot, then they'd toss the roots into a pile and burn them... Ira helped his father set out the long rows of evergreens which border each side of the long land leading from the mail road up to the farmhouse and other buildings."

CONFEDERATE MISSOURI TROOPS

1st Regiment, Missouri Cavalry

1st Cavalry Regiment was formed during summer of 1861. Many of its members had served with the Missouri State Guard. The unit fought at Elkhorn Tavern, then moved east of the Mississippi River and was dismounted. After fighting at Iuka and Corinth, it was assigned to M.E. Green's Brigade, Department of Mississippi and East Louisiana. It took an active part in the fight at Big Black River Bridge and on July 4, 1863, was captured at Vicksburg. After the exchange it was assigned to General Cockrell's Brigade, and consolidated with the 3rd (Samuel's) Missouri Cavalry Battalion. It fought with the Army of Tennessee throughout the Atlanta Campaign and was part of Hood's operations in Tennessee. Later it was involved in the defense of Mobile. On May 4, 1862, the regiment contained 536 effectives and lost 9 killed and 54 wounded at Corinth. The 1st/3rd Battalion reported 25 killed, 80 wounded, and 3 missing during the Atlanta Campaign and sustained 56 casualties at Allatoona. The small command surrendered with the Department of Alabama, Mississippi, and East Louisiana. The field officers were Colonel Elijah Gates; Lieutenant Colonels Richard B. Chiles, George W. Law, and William D. Maupin; and Majors Robert R.

Lawther and William C. Parker. <http://www.itd.nps.gov/cwss/template.cfm?unitname=1st%20Regiment%2C%20Missouri%20Cavalry&unitcode=CMO0001RC01>

24. Lorenzo Dow Heater^{107,108}, born January 13, 1819 in Braxton Co., (West) Virginia; died March 22, 1899 in Home of son Peter, Sublimity, Marion Co., Oregon. He was the son of 48. 25. Sophia J. Morley^{109,110}, born May 09, 1818 in Ohio^{111,112}; died March 05, 1897 in Silverton, Marion Co., Oregon. She was the daughter of 32. Moses Morley and 33. Catherine Watkins/Wadkins.

Notes for Lorenzo Dow Heater:

Death certificate of daughter Elizabeth Heater White lists Lorenzo's birthplace as Pennsylvania.

Arrived in Oregon 01 September 1852. According to family tradition, Lorenzo Dow Heater actually made the trip across America to Oregon three times (Charles Morley; April, 1987). I have so far been able to document the fact that L.D. Heater came to Oregon with two of his brothers and their families in 1850; leaving Des Moines, Iowa in May of that year. An interview with Rebecca Heater Hess in 1933 reveals that her father was in California at the gold mines. I suspect that he went with Martin Shuck, who was the father-in-law of Lorenzo's brother, Benjamin. I have found documentation that "Mr. Shuck went from California to the Isthmus of Panama, walked across, and went from there to Iowa." Rebecca Heater Hess stated that her father returned home to Iowa in the Fall of 1851. The following Spring the family left Iowa for Oregon, travelling across the plains to the Willamette Valley by ox team and prairie schooner. Lorenzo bought the 320-acre Donation Land Claim of Jimmy Male. Jimmy was a cousin of Sophia Morley Heater, and had come to Oregon in 1850 with Sophia's brothers, William and John Morley.

Obituary in Oregon Statesman, March 24, 1899; 8:5

Silverton Appeal, March 25, 1899; 3:4

Died

HEATER--At his home in the Waldo hills, Wednesday, March 22, 1899, L. D. Heater, aged 80 years and two months.

Mr. Heater was born in Virginia, in 1819. At the age of 15 years with his parents moved to Iowa.

He was one of the early pioneers of Oregon, having crossed the plains with ox teams in 1850. After a stay of one year here he went to California, and from that state he went to Iowa returning to Oregon with his family in 1852. He settled on the donation land claim in the Waldo hills where he has lived until the time of his death.

He leaves four children, one son and three daughters, all are living. The funeral was conducted yesterday at Union Hill cemetery.

From Records of Jeff Patten:

Woodstock Sentinel-Review obituary 04/23/1891

"Death has claimed another victim. Mr. Charles Patten, a deacon of the Baptist church, died on Tuesday morning, aged eighty years. Mr. Patten spent the flower of his days on his farm in Dumfries, where he laboured hard, making a fine home for himself. Having sold his place for a good figure fifteen years ago, he came to spend the remainder of his days in Drumbo. His wife died about ten years ago. He leaves a family of seven boys to mourn his loss. His oldest son, David, has always remained home and is still on the farm here."

Woodstock Sentinel-Review obituary 04/24/1891 Friday

"Charles Patten of Drumbo, father of W.C.Patten of this place, died on Tuesday. Funeral Thursday. Mr. Patten and Mr. Baker were men of wide acquaintance and highly respected by all who knew them."

N.B.-Charles was dismissed by letter from the St.George Baptist church in 1846 which I presume must have been about the time he moved to the Oxford County, Drumbo area. It is also noted in the Baptist archives that Mary (his wife) was also dismissed in 1846 from St.George so I presume they were already married in the St.George area (Dumfries anyway) prior to 1846 and moved to Oxford together.

Amherstburg Echo obituary April 24/1891

"PATTEN-At Drumbo, Oxford County, Ontario, on Tuesday April 21st, Charles Patten, father of Mr. J.A. Patten of Amherstburg aged about 81 years."

From research done by Jeff Patten:

Sentinel-Review obituary Friday 10/17/1879

"The demise of Mrs. Paton, wife of Deacon Charles Paton, removes from our midst an old and highly esteemed resident of Blenheim. Although somewhat retiring and unostentatious in her disposition, she always took an active interest in all that was good and her family and large circle of relatives and friends have the full sympathy of the community in their bereavement."

London Free Press 10/18/1879

"At Drumbo on Thursday Oct. 9th May, beloved wife of Deacon Charles Paton, aged 65 years."

Mary and at least some of her siblings were probably born in Saltfleet, Wentworth County, Ontario, Canada.

According to the death certificate of her son, John Harvey Patten, Mary Ann Patten was born in Pennsylvania.

Sentinel-Review obituary Wednesday 02/24/1897 P4 C2

"A resident of Drumbo died in Wolverton Monday, at 6 a.m., in the person of David W. Patton, and will be buried Wednesday afternoon in the Wolverton cemetery. Mr. Patton has for many years lived in Drumbo and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a consistent member of the Baptist church here, kind hearted, and always ready to render assistance in time of need. He never married, and about five years ago feeling poorly, moved to Wolverton with his brother Walter, where he remained until his death. He will be greatly missed by his many friends here. He had nearly reached the age of 58 years."

Notes for Walter Collins Patten:

Sentinel-Review obituary 11/29/1917

"Drumbo, Nov. 28.-W.C. Patten, another of our esteemed residents, passed away to the great beyond Friday evening, and on Monday afternoon the remains were laid away at the family plot in Wolverton. The surviving relatives are the widow and five children as follows: R.J. at home, Charles of Cleveland, Weyborn, of Macaun, Sask., Mrs. Gibson of St. Catharines and Miss Edith of Detroit. All are here with the exception of Weyborn. Rev. Mr. Shearer had charge of the funeral services, Rev. Mr. Morrow assisting. Deceased was in his 78th year.

In religion he was a Baptist, and in politics a staunch liberal. He was a good citizen and a kind neighbor, as was nicely touched upon by Mr. Sheare. He will be much missed by those who lived near him. During the last few years he spent most of his time in summer in beautifying the surrounds of his home. He had excellent taste in flowers and shrubbery, and took great delight in working among plants. His place could not be passed in daylight without attracting those whose taste had been cultivated in horticulture. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all. His brother, D.J.Patten, of Detroit, and relatives of St. George and other places were here attending the funeral."

In the 1901 census Walter lists himself as having an English origin whereas all his cousins in Brant County are claiming Scottish ancestry. In one of the previous census, the family claimed to have German ancestry. I don't know what that's all about.

The 1876 Historical Atlas for Oxford County, Blenheim Township shows Walter C. Patton living on Lot 1 Concession 7, along with C., David, and John.

Notes for Charlotte Buckberry:

Woodstock Sentinel-Review obituary 04/02/1925

"R.J.Patten recieved a telegram from his sister in Detroit on Thursday last, stating that his mother had passed away. The remains arrived on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. and taken to the Baptist church of which she was a consistant member for many years. Those accompanying were her daughter, Miss Edith, Walter Armstrong, a grandson and Dr. Joseph Patten, a brother-in-law, of Detroit, Mrs. Chas. Patten, a daughter-in-law and Arthur Patten, a grandson, of Cleveland Ohio. Service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Frickey, and assisted by Rev. Mr. Railton, internment in the cemetery at Wolverton in the family plot.

The pall-bearers were H. Allan, S. Dill, T.R. Beattir, Geo. Bautinheimer, H.W. Burgess and C.K. Currey. Flowers from Detroit and Cleveland were many and beautiful, also a spray from the Baptist church. Deceased live here for many years and was highly respected by all, a splendid neighbor, she attended the church of her choice as long as she lived here.

Mr. Patten died in 1917, the surviving members of the family are two sons and two daughters: D.W. of Macoun Sask., and R.J., of this place, Mrs. of the province of Quebec and Miss Edith of Detroit. Besides those mentioned, relatives from Brantford, St.George and Wolverton."

I have a copy of a transcript of a death certificate sent to me from Jane McIntyre (nee Armstrong) in June 2002. Picture on file but it says basically this-

Certificate of Death 58250790-State of Michigan-County of Wayne-City of Detroit
Charlotte Patten of 653 Joseph Campau St., a resident there for the last 6 years and 9 months, a widowed, white, female, previously married to Walter C. Patten, she was born June 11, 1842 in Brant County, as were her parents Hugh Buckborrow and Rachael Griffiths. Age at death was 82 years 9 months and 15 days. The informant was Edith Patten of 653 Joseph Campau St. and this report was filed March 28 1925. The date of death was March 26 1925 as a result of angina pectoria as diagnosed by Dr. Jay M. Burgess of 8530 (?) Woodward St. who was her physician for this condition from 1923 (?). She was to be buried in Drumbo and journey from Detroit as of March 29, 1925.

- v. Levi William Patten¹⁸¹, born August 19, 1845 in Blenheim, Oxford Co., Ontario; died May 25, 1936 in Armstrong, British Columbia, Canada^{182,183}; married Emily Louisa Robson March 17, 1869 in Edward Postil residence(bridle's uncle)¹⁸⁴; born 1849 in Malton, Yorkshire, England¹⁸⁵; died January 31, 1907 in Armstrong, British Columbia, Canada¹⁸⁶.

Notes for Levi William Patten:

From "Historic Armstrong B.C. and Its Street Names"

Although Patten Drive is a relatively new street, its namesake was one of Armstrong's earliest settlers. Levi William Patten and his family arrived in the area in August of 1883. Alfred Postill, a relative and friend of Levi's wife, Emily, had asked Mr. Patten to manage his sawmill at Deep Creek. He quickly agreed and the Pattens, with their three children, Edward W., Charles J., and Lee A., came west from Ontario. Patten Drive is named after the middle child, Charles. The family travelled by rail through the United States to Portland, Oregon where they boarded a steamer to Victoria. From Victoria they took a boat passage up the Fraser River to Yale and then rode on a stage to the Okanagan Valley.

Mr. Patten managed the sawmill for five years and then decided to purchase property next to the sawmill and built a custom gristmill. Levi Patten was the first person in the north end of the Valley to install proper facilities and the gristmill ran on power generated by the waterwheel. During the day the water power was required by the sawmill so the gristmill was operated at night. Mr. Patten continued to operate the sawmill for the next 22 years and the gristmill until a more modern flour mill was established in Enderby. The lumber that Levi produced in the sawmill was the lumber used to build the steamers which sailed on the rivers and lakes of the Okanagan Valley.

Levi Patten was originally from Oxford County, Ontario, where he was born on August 19, 1845. Mr. Patten taught school there for some years before becoming a flour miller. On March 17, 1867, Levi William Patten and Emily Louise Robson were wed at the home of Edward Postill, the bride's uncle. Miss Robson was born in Malton, England in 1849. She immigrated to Canada and was adopted by the Postill family. After their arrival in Lansdowne, Mr. and Mrs. Patten became active community members in the pioneer village. Mr. Patten served the municipality as clerk, Reeve, and building inspector. He was also the police magistrate until he was forced to give up the position due to failing health. As a former teacher, Mr. Patten was interested in children and education and was a member of the school board. He was also an agent for the Wawanesa Mutual Fire Insurance Company and a member of the Spallumcheen Farmers Intitution. Well-known for his accurate shooting, Mr. Patten was an enthusiastic member and supporter of the Armstrong Gun Club. He was also keenly interested in weather observation and submitted a monthly weather report to the newspaper. Another of Mr. Patten's interests was the Agricultural Fair, the forerunner of the Interior Provincial Exhibition. He was the president of the local Conservative Club and belonged to the congregation of the Zion United Church.

Levi Patten lived and worked in the Armstrong area for 52 years. He died on May 25, 1936 having been predeceased by his wife, Emily, in 1907. A true pioneer, Levi William Patten leaves behind a long record of service in the community which was carried on by his son Charles.

According to the obituary of his brother Judson A. Patten in 1925, Levi and another brother, John, owned and operated the Harrow grist mill for a time in Essex county.

The following sent to me by H.I.E.R.S in 1997.

"In 1874, Alfred L. Munger sold a half acre of land on King Street, 358 feet west of the Queen Street corner, to Levi William Patten, to build the three storey 'Harrow Steam Flouring Mill'. This same year, a mill owned by Samuel Hughson operated in East Haeew, and a third at Oxley was owned by Hugh and Joseph Russell. Four years later, the Harrow mill was sold to Josiah Rumball, and in 1886 it had changed into a roller mill and was owned by Sylvester McLean in partnership with others."

Amherstburg Echo article December 18/1874

"There are three splendid grist mills in this township. One at Harrow is owned by Mr. Levi Patton, one east of Harrow, owned by Mr. Samuel Hughson, and a third at Oxley, owned by Russell Bros."

Amherstburg Echo article March 31/1876

"I.W. [should read L.W. I imagine] Patton & Brother, of the Harrow Grist and Flouring Mills, are doing a heavy business. On Tuesday, 354 bushels of wheat and Wednesday 181 bushels."

The following supplied by David and Elaine Woods of B.C. January/1999 regarding marriage date of Levi and Emily:

Question by Jeff Patten , "I had Emily marrying Levi William Patten March 17/1869. You had 1867".

Reply by Elaine Woods(nee Georgena Patten), "Got Emily's wedding date from a type-written note from my Dad. So there is the possibility it is wrong. I note that their first child was born in Nov 1869, which is about 8 months after your wedding date. But as you know, the first one can come anytime!"

N.B.-Their marriage date is rather confusing as now I have 2 conflicting sources, verbally from John Marley and Elaine Woods against what I have recorded from the Kent County Register and the Christian Messenger.

Notes for Emily Louisa Robson:

The following from Elaine Woods (nee Georgena Patten) regarding Emily's mother's name being Elizabeth- "I have a small Bible, which has on the front page the name Elizabeth Robson, with the rest of the page torn out. On the remainder written upside down is "my mother & father married" and "Oct 24, 1844". On the next page is written, apparently in her handwriting "Emily Robson, Malton, England (Yorkshire)."

I (Jeff Patten) also asked of Elaine if she knew if Emily was adopted, and she had this to say- "the "adoption" information comes from a letter from Dorothy Postill Birrell, written to Dad and me in 1983 saying that Emily was not "formally adopted". She did not think people bothered as much about that in those days. In another letter later in 1983 she says "there is no word of when Emily joined them or why, but when they (Postills) left Yorkshire for Canada she was with them." Dad always call Dot Birrell a cousin. Both of us used to write to her. I don't remember when she died, but think some time after Dad, who died in 1984. I am still trying to firm up the tenuous connections I have between the Postills and the Pattens".

- vi. Charles F. Patten¹⁹², born 1847 in Blenheim, Oxford Co., Ontario; died Bef. 1925¹⁹³

Notes for Charles F. Patten:

According to the obituary of Amelia (Minnie) in the Amherstburg Echo February 23/1877, she was the sister of Dr. C.F. Patten of Harrow. According to the obituary of his brother Judson A. Patten (1925), Charles was mentioned again as having practised medicine in Harrow but was already deceased by then.

Sent to me by H.I.E.R.S. (Harrow Early Immigrant Research Society) in 1997 was some excerpts from a book (probably a Harrow historical tome) relating to Patten/Pattons in the area and the following are about Charles I believe.

"Dr. C.F. Patten, graduate of Trinity College, Toronto, was here in 1875 and 1876. It is not known how long he stayed. In 1888, Dr. George McKenzie of Poplar Hill was here, but in 1889 his place was taken by Dr. Nathaniel Mitchell..."

"One of the earliest forms of life and casualty insurance was supplied by the fraternal lodges. In 1889, C.F. Patten received $100 from the AOUW (Workman) Relief Association for injuries he had received."

Perhaps Charles was a doctor in Harrow until 1888 when he had an accident of some sort and his position as doctor was covered by George McKenzie. It mentions that he didn't receive payment for injury until 1889 when another doctor came. Perhaps at that time Charles's injuries were deemed to interfere with his doctoring and a permanent replacement was given the job. All conjecture on my part however. The only other mention of Doctor Patten that I have at this time is an Amherstburg Echo article dated July 1/1876 "Gilbert Bernard of Colchester...arm broken when threshing clover...caught between the driving belt and the whirl...set by Dr. Patten of Harrow."

Amherstburg Echo Obituary January 30 1925 Page 1

DEATH OF J.A. PATTEN

Ex-Mayor of Amherstburg

The Echo recieved word Wednesday morning, from Los Angeles, Calif., that J.A. Patten, of Regina, a former prominent resident of Amherstburg, had passed away there on Friday morning, January 16th. It seems that Mr. Patten, who has been in frail health for some years, went there from Regina the week before, accompanied by Mrs. Patten, to spend the winter. He was quite exhausted by the trip, and the morning after, without taking any rest, went down to the city for some paint supplies. On Sunday he became seriously ill and gradually became worse until death came. The funeral was held on Monday, the 19th, under Masonic auspices, and his remains were placed in a vault for the time being, until Mrs. Patten decides whether she intends to return to Regina or remain in Los Angeles. Mr. Patten was a native of St.George, Ont., and came to Amherstburg nearly half a century ago. He was a double cousin of the late Judson S. Patton, prominent farmer of Malden, and the late Myles Patton, ex-reeve of Colchester South, their fathers having married three sisters. Two brothers of Mr. Patten, subject of this memoir, Levi and John, once owned and operated the Harrow grist mill, at that time located across the road from where the Baptist church now stands. Another brother, Dr. Charles Patten, now deceased, was a practising physician in Harrow, while his sole surviving brother is Dr. Joseph Patten, of Detroit. He married in Amherstburg Miss Margaret Hendron, daughter of the late Mrs. Thos. Armitage, Malden. Four children were born to them here--Josie, Mrs.----- deceased; Walter (Bud), who was killed on a railway accident in the Northwest; Gussie, Mrs. Cook, of California; and Eva, Mrs. Lucker, of Regina. Mr. Patten was a painter and decorator and an artist of rare ability. He took an active interest in municipal affairs and was Mayor of Amherstburg in 1899. He was prominent in Masonic circles and during the year 1883---93 presided as W.M. of Thistle Lodge. In 1900 the family moved to Regina, where he recieved a Government position in the Lands Titles office. He recieved gradual promotion and at the time of his death was Deputy Registrar for the Provincial Government, in charge of a large staff of employees.

According to a bit sent to me from H.E.I.R.S., Judson was a Councillor in Colchester Twp. (before being split into south and north) in 1874, 1875, 1876 and was a Deputy Reeve in 1879. I believe he remained active in local politics in Colchester N. but do not have that information at hand.

Amherstburg Echo August 27/1897

"J.A. Patten is painting the exterior of the Lake View House. Some of the work is about 60 feet high and it is a very ticklish job."

In 1850, although then past the prime of manhood, he made an overland trip to Oregon, crossing the plains with ox-teams, and settled near Sublimity, Oregon. Two years later he sent for his wife who crossed the plains to join him. Their reunion was of brief duration, his death occurring in the same year, 1852."

On April 14, 1850, Moses Morley started for Oregon, leaving most of his family behind. He arrived in Oregon October 2, 1850. Catharine arrived to join her husband September 1852. He apparently died before she arrived. He probably had other children before William who did not come to Oregon. Moses and Catharine Wadkins Morley had a total of 13 children. (Question: Moses arrived in Oregon Territory October 1850, but is also listed in the 1850 census with his family in Iowa--likely he was listed there, even though he wasn't actually physically present). Some of this information may be in error, as Moses, William, and John are all listed in the 1850 Oregon Territory census, which was taken in January 1850.

This large farm was located south of Silver Falls Highway. It was directly opposite where Drift Creek Road joins the Silver Falls Highway. The farm was bordered on the west by Carter Road and on the north by the Silver Falls Highway. Henry Carter later bought a farm (Thomas Fine's old place) just one section to the west on the Highway, and Jacob Scott's farm (Thomas Coon's land claim) was just a few hundred yards east of the Morley place on the Highway. The farm was divided and sold, and by 1878 was owned by the Nott, Saunders, Hayer, and Hannah families.

"Closely identified with the farming interests of Marion County is John Morley, who is pleasantly located about three miles northeast of Silverton, where he is prosperously engaged in the pursuit of agriculture. He is numbered among the veteran farmers of the county who have labored with unceasing toil in their chosen vocation, and are now enjoying comfortable competencies, acquired chiefly by their own efforts. Of good old Virginia stock, he was born May 9, 1823, in Jackson County, Ohio, a son of Moses Morley. Obtaining his early education in the district schools, and remaining on the old home farm in Ohio until twenty one years of age. He then left the parental roof and began the battle of life for himself, working for wages the first three years thereafter. In 1847, following the tide of immigration westward, he and two boys by the name of Darst, started for Oregon, crossing the plains with an ox cart, and being four months on the road. They crossed the Missouri River at St. Joseph May 5, 1847 and reached the Willamette Valley September 5, 1847. Becoming a pioneer of Marion County, he took up a claim near Sublimity, about three miles from the town, and after his marriage settled to housekeeping on property still nearer that place, living there about eight years. Removing to Silverton in 1862, Mr. Morley turned his attention to the milling business, operating a grist mill there for about eight years. In 1871 he bought a farm nearly three miles northeast of Silverton, after which he purchased the farm that he now owns and occupies. He has one hundred and forty six acres of land, which he devotes to stock raising, and general farming, twelve acres of which is in hops."

"In 1847, age 24, he started westward with two other boys. It took four months with ox team from St. Joe, MO. He took a claim near Sublimity, OR. In 1862 moved to Silverton, OR and opened a grist mill which he ran for eight years. He purchased two farms near Silverton on the Abiqua River where he spent the rest of his life. He was a pioneer in hop growing. Interment: Miller Cemetery, Silverton." [895240.ged]

Obituary: Silverton Appeal, March 18, 1899, 3:6

Cooper--At Couer d'Alene, Idaho, Tuesday, February 23, 1899, Mrs. James Cooper.

Mrs. Cooper was born in Ohio, March 4, 1834. In early life she removed with parents to Iowa, and in that state in 1849, was married to James Cooper.

In 1853, with her husband she crossed the plains to Oregon and settled in Marion County.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper were former residents of Silverton and will be remembered by all of the older residents of this city. In an early day Mr. Cooper was a prominent business man in this city.

Mrs. Cooper is a sister of Uncle John Morley of Abiqua.

She leaves a husband 71 years of age and eight children to mourn her loss.

Obituary: Coeur d'Alene Press, 25 February 1899

"A Pioneer Lady Passes Away

Mrs. James Cooper died on her golden wedding anniversary.

The busy and eventful life of Mrs. James Cooper is ended. Born in Vermillion County, Ohio, on March 4, 1833 she would have reached the ripe old age of 66 years next month.

In early life she moved with her parents to Iowa and was one of the pioneers of that state. On February 23, 1849, she married James Cooper at Mount Pleasant, Iowa and the two have lived together for fifty years, death calling her to her reward on her golden wedding anniversary, Tuesday, February 23, 1899. Of this union nine children were born, one now dead and eight living, all of whom except William, now in Nevada, were at her bedside when the angel of death beckoned her spirit to the better _____. The children present were Mrs. Mary Woolen, George, William, Walter, Isaac, Jasper, James and Frank Cooper. Mrs. Cooper also had several sisters and one brother who are living in Iowa, Illinois, Oregon and California.

Her life has been an eventful one. Crossing the plains with a large number of neighbors and other eastern people in 1853, and settling in Marion county, Oregon, during the fall of that year, she may be called one of the pioneers of that state. During that long and tedious journey of six months there were many incidents to try the metal of strong hearted men, but the ladies in the train were ever ready to face the dangers and endure all hardships for the purpose of securing a home of their own in the land 'where rolls the Oregon' without complaint, and Mrs. Cooper was one of them. During the trip she witnessed several fights with the Indians in which a number of the redskins were sent to their happy hunting grounds and several members of the train were killed. Fording swollen streams and facing other dangers were incidents of common occurrence, and it was while wending their way up the banks of Green river that her son George was born.

In 1871, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper gathered their family and worldly possessions together and removed from Oregon to Walla Walla, Wash., settling the following year in Whitman county where they remained until 1891, when they came to Coeur d'Alene. When they settled in Whitman country the Palouse country was undeveloped and considered fit only for a cattle range.

The funeral takes place today at 2 o'clock p.m., from the family residence. Services will be conducted by Rev. T. G. Hodgson, with interment in the post cemetery.

Mrs. Cooper was a lady of excellent character, and has been an invalid for over a year. She leaves a husband 71 years of age to mourn the loss of a life companion. The family has the sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in their deep sorrow."

Child of William Woods and Harriet Painter is:

- 23 i. Mary Elizabeth Woods, born July 19, 1840 in Virginia; died December 28, 1888; married John Wheeler Thomas May 19, 1858 in Richmond, Roanoke Co., Virginia.

48. Peter Sr. Heater, born Abt. 1783 in Pennsylvania; died in Henry Co., Iowa. He married 49. Elizabeth Wilson.

49. Elizabeth Wilson, born in Virginia or Illinois. She was the daughter of George Wilson.

Notes for Peter Sr. Heater:

Was born in Pennsylvania about 1783. He was a descendant of German ancestors who settled there at an early date. He married Elizabeth Wilson, a native of Virginia and daughter of George Wilson, a Revolutionary War soldier. Miss Wilson was born about 1794. Some controversy apparently exists concerning Elizabeth Wilson. One researcher believes her name was actually Elizabeth Dow. Peter Heater served in the war of 1812, having been drafted at Harrison County, Virginia. He is probably buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Iowa. Peter left his farm to Noah, after the other boys moved to Oregon. Hiram lived in the Salt Lick area of W. Virginia, near the town of Heaters. The family lived in Virginia Territory, now Braxton County, W. Virginia, before they moved to Iowa. (Information provided by Flodene Heater Jarvill, 1987)

Heaters, West Virginia is on State Highway 19, just east of Interstate 79, about halfway between Charleston and Clarksburg in central West Virginia.

The family moved from Virginia to Henry County, Iowa in 1838. Hiram remained in (West) Virginia.

Peter Heater served in the War of 1812 in the company commanded by John Bozart in the 5th Regiment of V.W. commanded by Lt. Col. W.L. Street. He served from Aug. 30 to Dec. 10, 1814. He was ill and received an honorable discharge. In 1850, 1855, and 1856 he appeared before the clerk of the District Court of Henry County in Iowa and received an affidavit of his identity for the purpose of obtaining bounty land according to the Act passed September 28, 1850.

Notes for P. James Patten:

Information from Jeff Patten:

According to a letter from Diane Patten Guyatt McDougall in August of 1997, James Patten's father was a William Patten. William is listed in the 1785 census of Stafford County Virginia as "three white souls, no slaves, one dwelling" and is supposed to be the only Patten in Virginia at that time. This info comes by way of Benjamin Patten (Diane's grandfather) and his uncle Walter (a son of Aaron) who apparently made a trip to Virginia at one time to learn more of the roots of the family. Their findings were handed down through Frank to Harold Cherry and in turn to Diane. In any event, James and Deborah came to Canada in 1804 to Jerseyville, and in 1824, settled on Lot 3, Conc.III in South Dumfries, Brant County. That last being corroborated by several sources, so quite likely the first is equally as accurate.

The following by Helen Patton (nee Morgan)

"JAMES AND HIS FAMILY ARRIVED IN SOUTH DUMFRIES IN 1923. THEY HELPED BUILD THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH IN 1824 WHERE THE CEMETERY NOW STANDS.

JAMES MOVED TO NEW JERSEY WITH AN UNCLE. HE MET DEBORAH WILLISON AND WANTED TO MARRY. THEY WERE QUAKERS AND HER FATHER REQUESTED THAT JAMES WORK FOR HIM FOR THREE YEARS BEFORE HE WAS ALLOWED TO MARRY. AFTER LEVI'S BIRTH THEY MOVED TO UPPER CANADA. THEY STAYED AT ANCASTER SEVERAL YEARS. THEN BOUGHT THE FARM IN ST. GEORGE IN 1831. THEY HAD FAMILY REUNIONS IN 1930'S."

According to an e-mail from Jane McIntyre (nee Armstrong) in October 1998, James was from Staunton Virginia and his father died while serving in Washington's army. This too is supposed to have come from Mr. Benjamin Patten, Diane McDougall's grandfather.patten@golden.net (Jeff Patten) Mar 26, 1997

PATTEN, WILLSON -

I am looking for details on my ancestor JAMES PATTEN. He is reported to have been born circa 1773, somewhere in Virginia as per LDS records. He was possibly Scottish in decent and was Baptist in religion, at least he was a member of the Baptist Church here in Ontario. He moved to New Jersey and married Deborah Willson circa 1798. He then moved to the Ancaster area of Ontario circa 1802. He died in St.George, Ontario Feb.2 1846. He had 10 children that I know of, 8 of whom lived and I have some information about. Thanks for any help that can be had.

Notes for Deborah Willison/Willson:

It says in the Canadian Baptist Archives that Deborah was received by letter in 9/15/1832. Subsequent correspondence to the CBA finds that they do not have the actual letters as they are just alluded to in the Church minutes. Deborah is mentioned in the St.George record Aug.18/1827 "... and sister Patten all in default for not attending to church meeting. The Church decide by excluding them." She was, as mentioned before, restored to church membership in 1832. As per to the 1861 census she was living with her son Hugh the year she died.

Children of P. Patten and Deborah Willison/Willson are:

- i. James Patten²⁸⁴, born January 01, 1800 in New Jersey, U.S.A.^{285,286}, died in New Jersey, U.S.A.^{287,288}
- ii. Thomas Patten²⁸⁸, born March 06, 1801 in New Jersey, U.S.A.^{289,290}, died in New Jersey^{291,292}
- iii. Levi Patten²⁹³, born September 07, 1803 in New Jersey, U.S.A.²⁹⁴; died August 14, 1885 in Malden Twp., Essex Co., Ontario; married Elizabeth Steele February 15, 1830 in Brantford, Brant Co., Ontario; born March 01, 1808 in Fort George, Ontario, Canada²⁹⁵; died January 29, 1866 in Colchester, Essex County, Ontario²⁹⁶.

Notes for Levi Patten:

It says in the Canadian Baptist Archives that a Levi and Elizabeth were both dismissed by letter from the St.George Baptist Church in 5/12/1860. Perhaps this was the time that he and his family moved to Essex County to the Colchester/Harrow area. Apparently somewhere in his or his children's generation is when the family name Patten changed to Patton in that area.

Notes for John Patten:

I am uncertain about this John Patten being an actual son of James and Deborah Patten. All the other Patten children are Baptist yet the 1851, 1861 and 1871 census say this family is Methodist which holds true with some of the other Patten/Patton families in the area who were from Ireland and Scotland but are no relation. Still, his birth date as per these censuses is consistent with information provided to me by Helen Morgan Patton and an LDS microfiche. There is also some confusion on children (census was hard to read).

Helen Morgan Patton seems to think that John may have been a doctor. I hope to run across some information one way or the other.

Expositor obituary 04/30/1903 P4 C4

"Mrs. Patten, senior, relict. of the late Aaron Patten, died on Sunday evening at the residence of her son, Mr. Walter Patten, in the 87th year of her age. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late Henry Kitchen, senior, and was born in Ancaster, and removed with her parents when quite young to the farm now owned by Mr. H. Kitchen, two miles northeast of this town, where she spent her girlhood and lived until her marriage about 60 years ago to Mr. Aaron Patten. Mr. and Mrs. Patten began their married life on the farm on which she died and which has been her home for more than half a century. Mrs. Patten early in life united with the Baptist church, and was an active and faithful member, and with her husband was one of the pioneer workers, he being familiarly known as Deacon Aaron Patten. She was widely known and highly respected for her intelligence, generosity, hospitality and genial disposition.

She leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn the loss of an affectionate mother-Mr. Edgar Patten, St.George, Mrs. Isaac C. Kitchen, Mr. Walter Patten of this section and Mr. Charles Patten of Puslinch. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended by sympathizing friends and neighbors. The ceremonies at the house and at the grave in the Baptist cemetery were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J.J.Reeves."

Notes for Martha Ann Malcolm:

Expositor obituary 10/08/1908 P5 C5

"On Wednesday Martha A. Malcolm widow of the late Hugh Patten, died at her residence east of town, at the ripe age of 85 years.

Deceased was a Canadian and a resident of this section for the major portion of her long life. She was married in 1840 and with her husband led the strenuous life of the farm, doing her part as wife and mother faithfully and well. She was well known and highly respected by a wide circle of friends. Early a member of the Baptist church she, with her husband and family were ever found among the staunchest of the workers. She had lived to see her large family of seven sons and one daughter grow up and settle in life, all of them with the exception of one, within a few miles of the homestead. Her daughter, Mrs. Cook, was her faithful attendant during a long illness. Her sons, George, who resides at home, Dr. F.I. Patten and Tom Patten of St.George, Sidney, a few miles south, Finlay and Nelson, near Harrisburg, were the pall-bearers at the funeral obsequies on Friday afternoon. One other son, Lemuel, of British Columbia, was unable to be present. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. J.E.Hawkings, at the house and at the place of internment in the Baptist cemetery where a large concourse of friends assembled."
